

Viktor Garcia Moros

(561) 289-0855 – vm1564@nyu.edu

Summary	I'm curious and personable and I love solving problems
Education	New York University – MS in Computer Science <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>– Expected graduation: May 2021</li><li>– Current GPA: 4.0</li></ul> University of Chicago – BS in Math – Graduated 2015
Computer Skills	Python, Django, SQL, C++, Git, Linux, HTML, CSS
Experience	Software Dev Engineer Intern at Amazon – June 2020 to August 2020 <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>– Worked on tools, including a chatbot, that solve Amazon employees' IT problems</li></ul> Data Integrity Analyst at Mattersight – October 2016 to June 2018 <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>– Tested software and analyzed data to make sure that our products were working correctly</li><li>– Used Python, VBA, and SQL to automate various testing processes</li></ul> Teaching Assistant at Saint Andrew's School – January 2016 to June 2016 <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>– Provided extra help for high school students from every math class</li><li>– Helped students with calculus, geometry, algebra, trigonometry, etc.</li></ul> Math REU Participant at University of Chicago – June 2014 to July 2014 <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>– Conducted independent research on the Riemann Zeta function and wrote a research paper</li><li>– Took classes including combinatorics and number theory</li></ul> Ben and Jerry's – December 2010 to May 2011 <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>– Made people happy by serving them ice cream</li></ul>
Projects	ShowUp – a web app for finding people to go to concerts with Pandorka – a web app that recommends Wikipedia articles based on your interests
Interests	Fluent in Swedish and Spanish, novice in French Photography (portfolio), guitar &amp; singing, travel I was a starting player on the University of Chicago StarCraft team

